

INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETING MEANS-TEST ASSIGNMENT
UST MEANS-TEST WORKSHOP
NOVEMBER 8, 2005 11:30 A.M. - 1:30 P.M.

1. Print a copy of the hypothetical from the website, or copy it on your computer. See:
<http://www.usdoj.gov/ust/r16/>
2. Print sufficient copies of the Form B22A, Means Test (see link on site) (hereafter “Worksheets”) to complete tests for each alternative scenario set forth in the hypothetical.
3. Fill out a separate Worksheet for each scenario, or otherwise make note of the different results created by the alternative facts; save your questions for the Workshop.
4. Utilize the UST website to access the necessary charts; <http://www.usdoj.gov/ust/>. Select the “Means Testing” button under “Bankruptcy Abuse Prevention and Consumer Protection Act of 2005”; there are links to the various charts you will require on that page “Census Bureau, IRS and Administrative Expense Multipliers Data” to access charts.
5. Bring your filled out Worksheets to the Brown Bag workshop session on Tuesday, November 8th, from 11:30 - 1:30. UST personnel will walk you through the answers and provide the UST policy/basis for the answers to the hypos and alternatives; be sure to ask any questions at that time.
6. If you are unable to attend the workshop, the UST will post the Answer Key on the Region 16 Website on or about November 9, 2005.
